

CORRECTS REPORT ABOUT SECOND DIV

Hoult Man Gets Two Interesting Letters From Army of Occupation.

Joe D. Bowman, of Hoult, has received a letter from his son in France and one from his nephew in Germany, one of "the guard along the Rhine." They are as follows:

LA BACHALLE (Met L.) France, January 9, 1919.
Dear Papa:—It has been longer than I intended since writing last, but I have been so busy lately I have scarcely had time to write.

I have my first special duty job now. To use the army term I am a "Dog-rober." I am working in the officers' mess. It is not very hard work but is about 10 hours and seven days a week. It is a change though and "a change is as good as a rest." I would not want it for more than an average lifetime though.

I don't know when we will get home. Some say very soon. Others say not till April. I don't pretend to have any opinion on the matter at all. I suppose when our Uncle Sam gets ready for us to go back we will go. Of course I am ready to be sent any time. I suppose Jesse is at home now, waiting for me to get back so he can show me some really "snappy" manual of arms, etc., a line of that one month recruit stuff. (This is for Jesse to read). Tell him to keep in practice; some day a "real soldier" will be home and show him something he never dreamed of.

I almost forgot to say it is so uncertain how long we will be here that it would be unwise to try to send me a sweater. I thank you just the same. If I come home any time in the near future it would come in handy after getting back. It would be so much colder than we are used to. It seems strange that this is the 9th of January and I have not seen snow yet. I have seen plenty of rain though, as it has been raining about three-fourths of the time since we have been in France.

Tell mamma many thanks for the Christmas package. I did not receive it till after New Year's day, but it was just the same. There is no Y. M. C. A. here so the tobacco sure came in handy. CLARENCE.

Private Clarence M. Bowman, Battery C, 48th Art'y, C. A. C., American E. F. V. New York.

Private G. A. McElfresh, of the 12th Field Artillery, Bat. D, whose letter to a cousin was given The West Virginian a day or so ago, seems very jealous of the honor of his regiment and battery. The other letter listed the engagements the Second Army division was in. In this letter he says in part:

Dear Uncle:—I received your letter Christmas day and was very glad to hear from you. I am now in Germany. I crossed the Rhine the 18th of December after a 26-days' hike. I am now in Honningen in an old prison camp.

I am in the Second division. I saw in The Fairmont Times "which I saw a few days ago," that the Second division was composed of the 15th, 16th and 18th regiments of artillery. That is wrong as the 16th and 18th Artillery are not in the Second division and never were. The 12th has been in the Second division ever since the division was organized.

I was only in two large battles before I went to the hospital. I was in the second battle of the Marne, going into action June 3d. I was also in the battle of Soissons in July. I first arrived at the front in the Verdun sector which was a quiet sector.

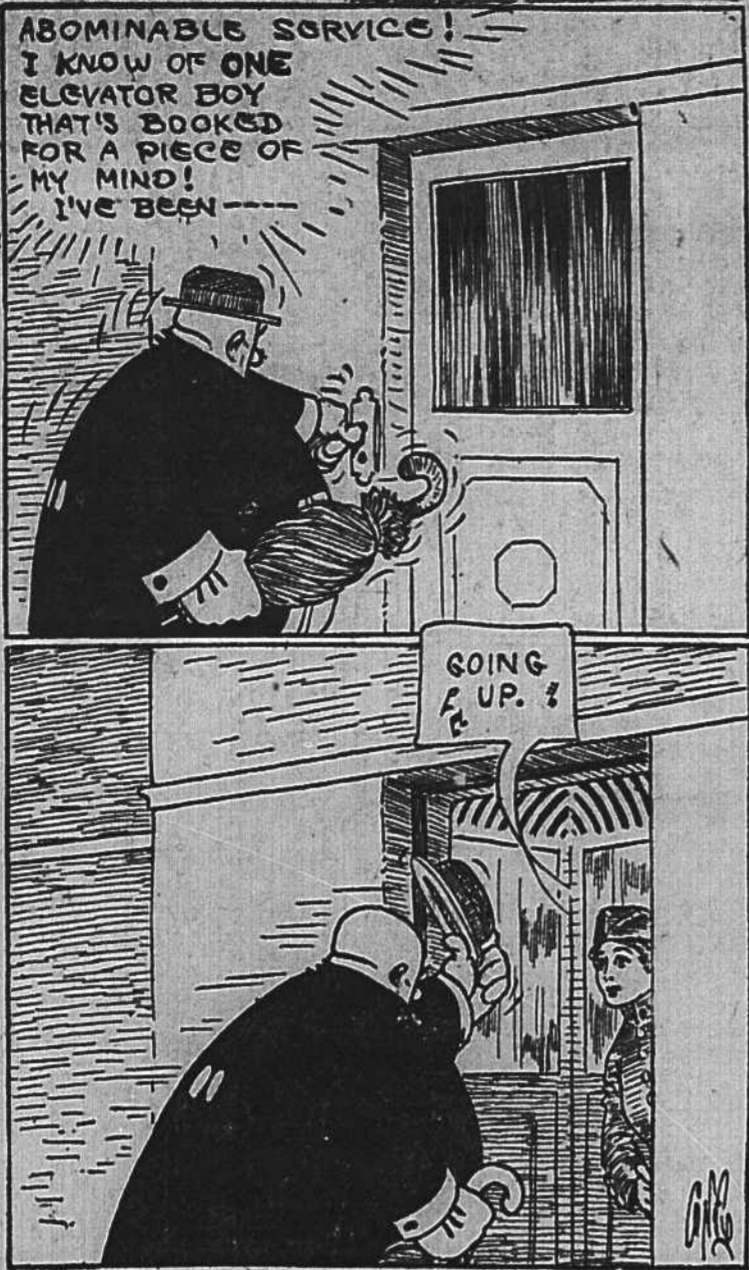

When we left there we went to the Marne where we stopped the German drive on Paris on June 3d. We stayed there 35 days and then went to Soissons sector in the Ville Catelet salient where we stayed ten days. When we left there we went to Nancy for a rest. After a short rest we went to the Toul sector which was another quiet sector. While there I was sent on detached service with a French anti-aircraft battery for 14 days. When we came out of this I went to the hospital with a sprained arch in my left foot. Arrived back with the battery the 16th of November after missing three large battles that the battery had been in.

Will you please have The Times correct their mistake as I would like our regiment to get the credit due it in my home town if no place else.

Your loving nephew,
ARCH.
